The Ombuds serves faculty and staff as a neutral, independent, and informal resource where consultations are treated in confidence (except if there is a risk of physical harm or required by law). The office may provide informal conflict resolution, referrals to campus resources, information on University policies, and assist in the visitor’s process of weighing options. The Ombuds cannot advocate, participate in a formal proceeding, provide legal advice, or counseling.

Please contact the appropriate office at:

Main campus - https://academic-affairs.utah.edu/office-for-faculty/facultyombuds/

Health Sciences - https://uofuhealth.utah.edu/ombudsman/